Our History And Winery

The 1837 Barossa winery commemorates the date on which Colonel William Light, founder of Adelaide and first Surveyor-General of South Australia, named the Barossa in 1837 on the estate.

Generations of our winemakers have dedicated their work to our grand tradition, embodying our heritage of outstanding winemaking in every bottle.

The history and the detailed design of 1837 Barossa provides the perfect backdrop for stunning photos at our winery.

Luxury Cottages

Our luxury cottages are self-contained with a terrace and vineyard views. The living room with fireplace and sofa is furnished with beautiful French antique furniture and modern design classics, adjoined by a dining area. The spacious bedroom with king size bed and a laptop desk. The living room, dining and bedroom have large windows overlooking the vineyard. The private bathroom has a spa bath and double showers. Each cottage comes with a fully equipped kitchen and many other wonderful features.

Modern Art Trail

1837 Barossa has combined art and wine to provide the ultimate experience for visitors that are looking to add a little culture to their winery adventures. The spectacular art trail offers a dozen modern art sculptures that have been commissioned from international artists making the collection the latest addition to the tourism offering of the Barossa.

We also have a helicopter pad with joy flights around our winery and the Barossa for guests to enjoy.

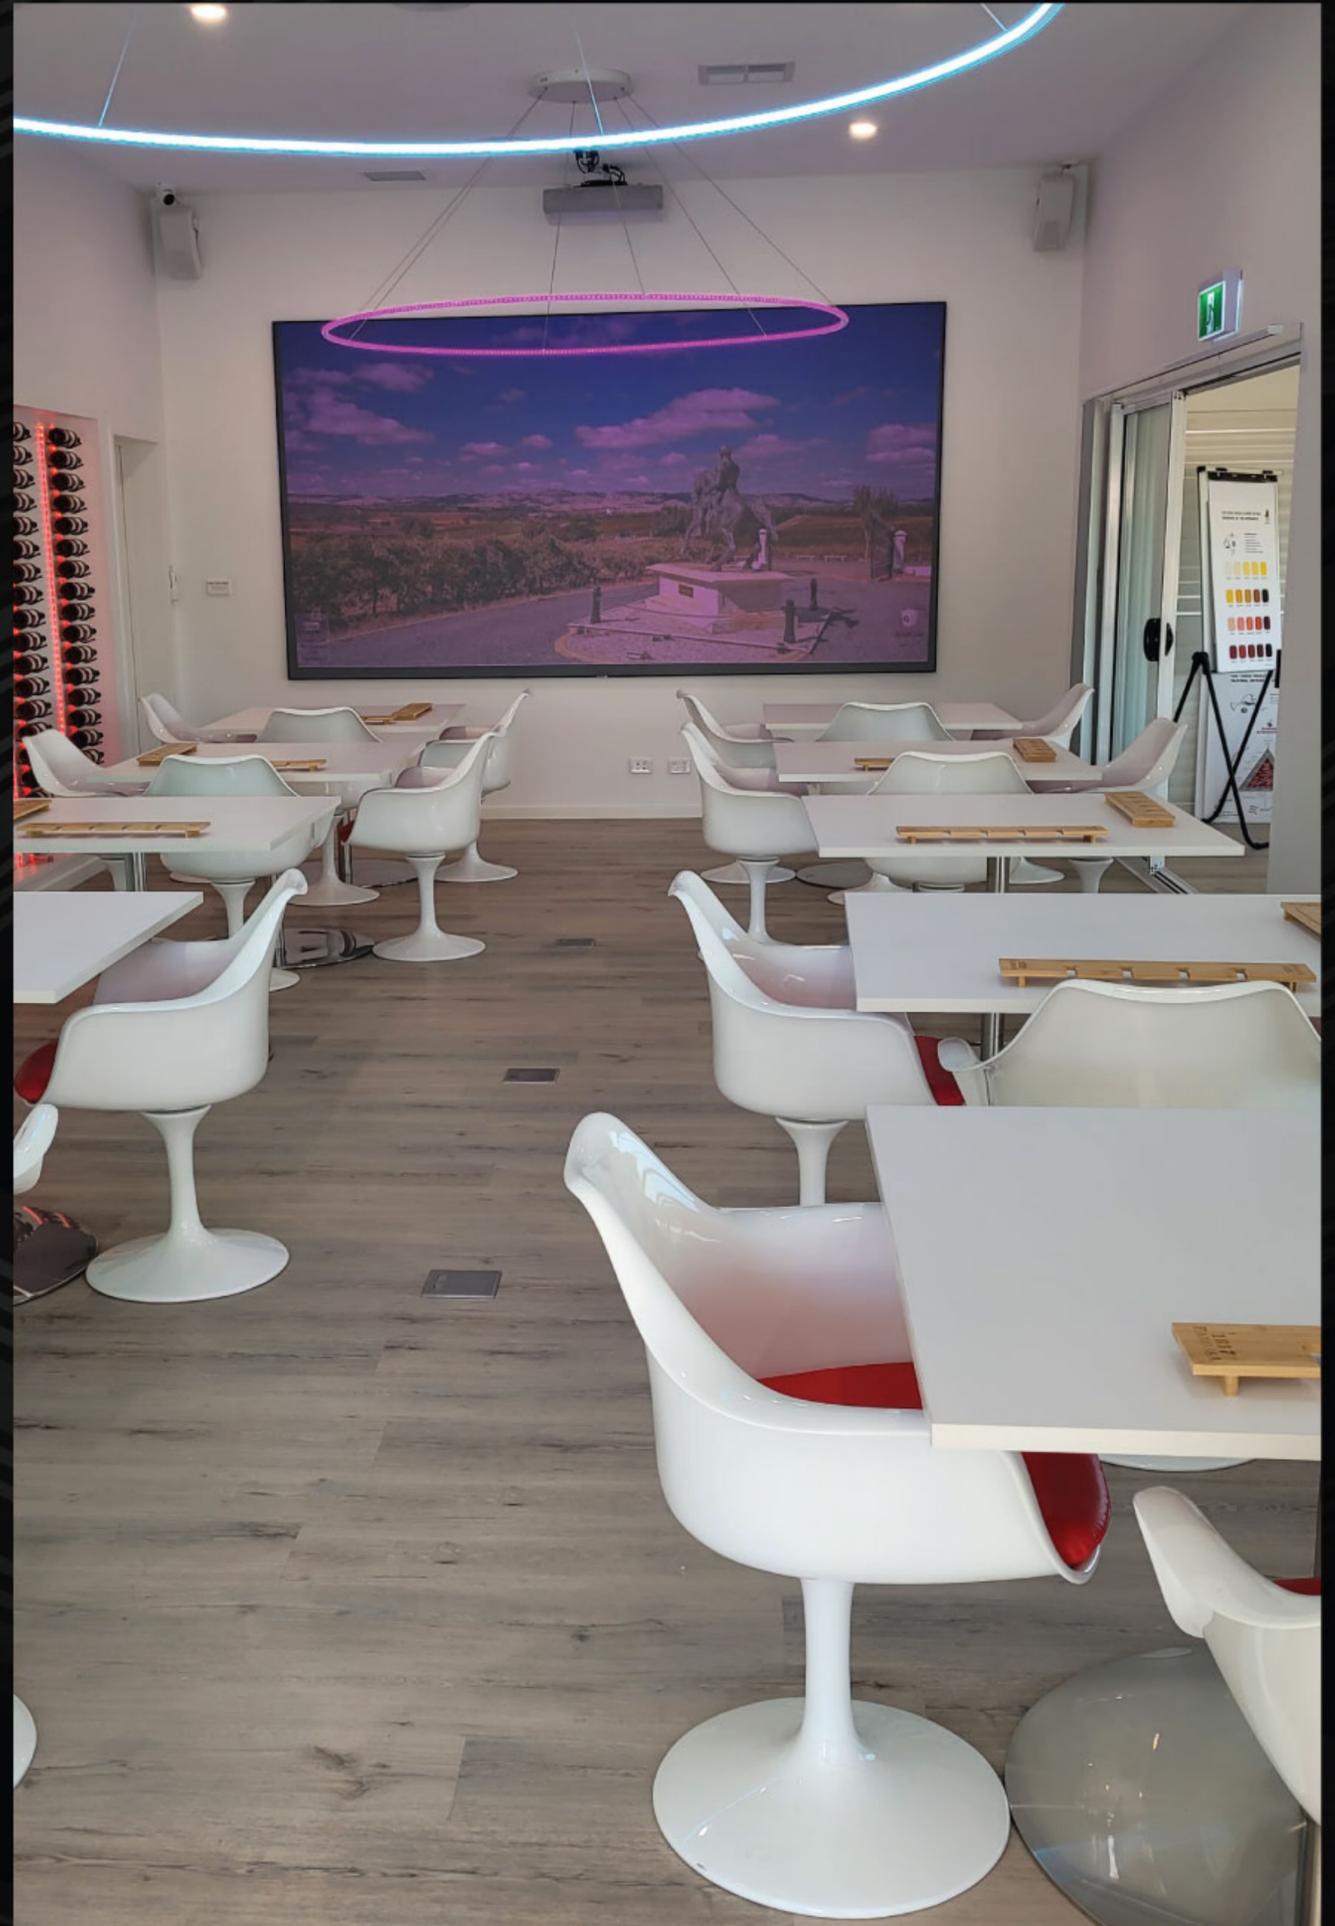

Cellar Door Pavilion

Visit the prestigious Barossa Valley Cellar Door, an iconic Australian winery experience. Explore our exceptional wines. Unravel a wine experience of grand proportions.

Expand your palate with celebrated wine and food. Sit and relax to enjoy the stunning views of our vineyards with wine tasting, wine food pairing and wine tours of the estate.

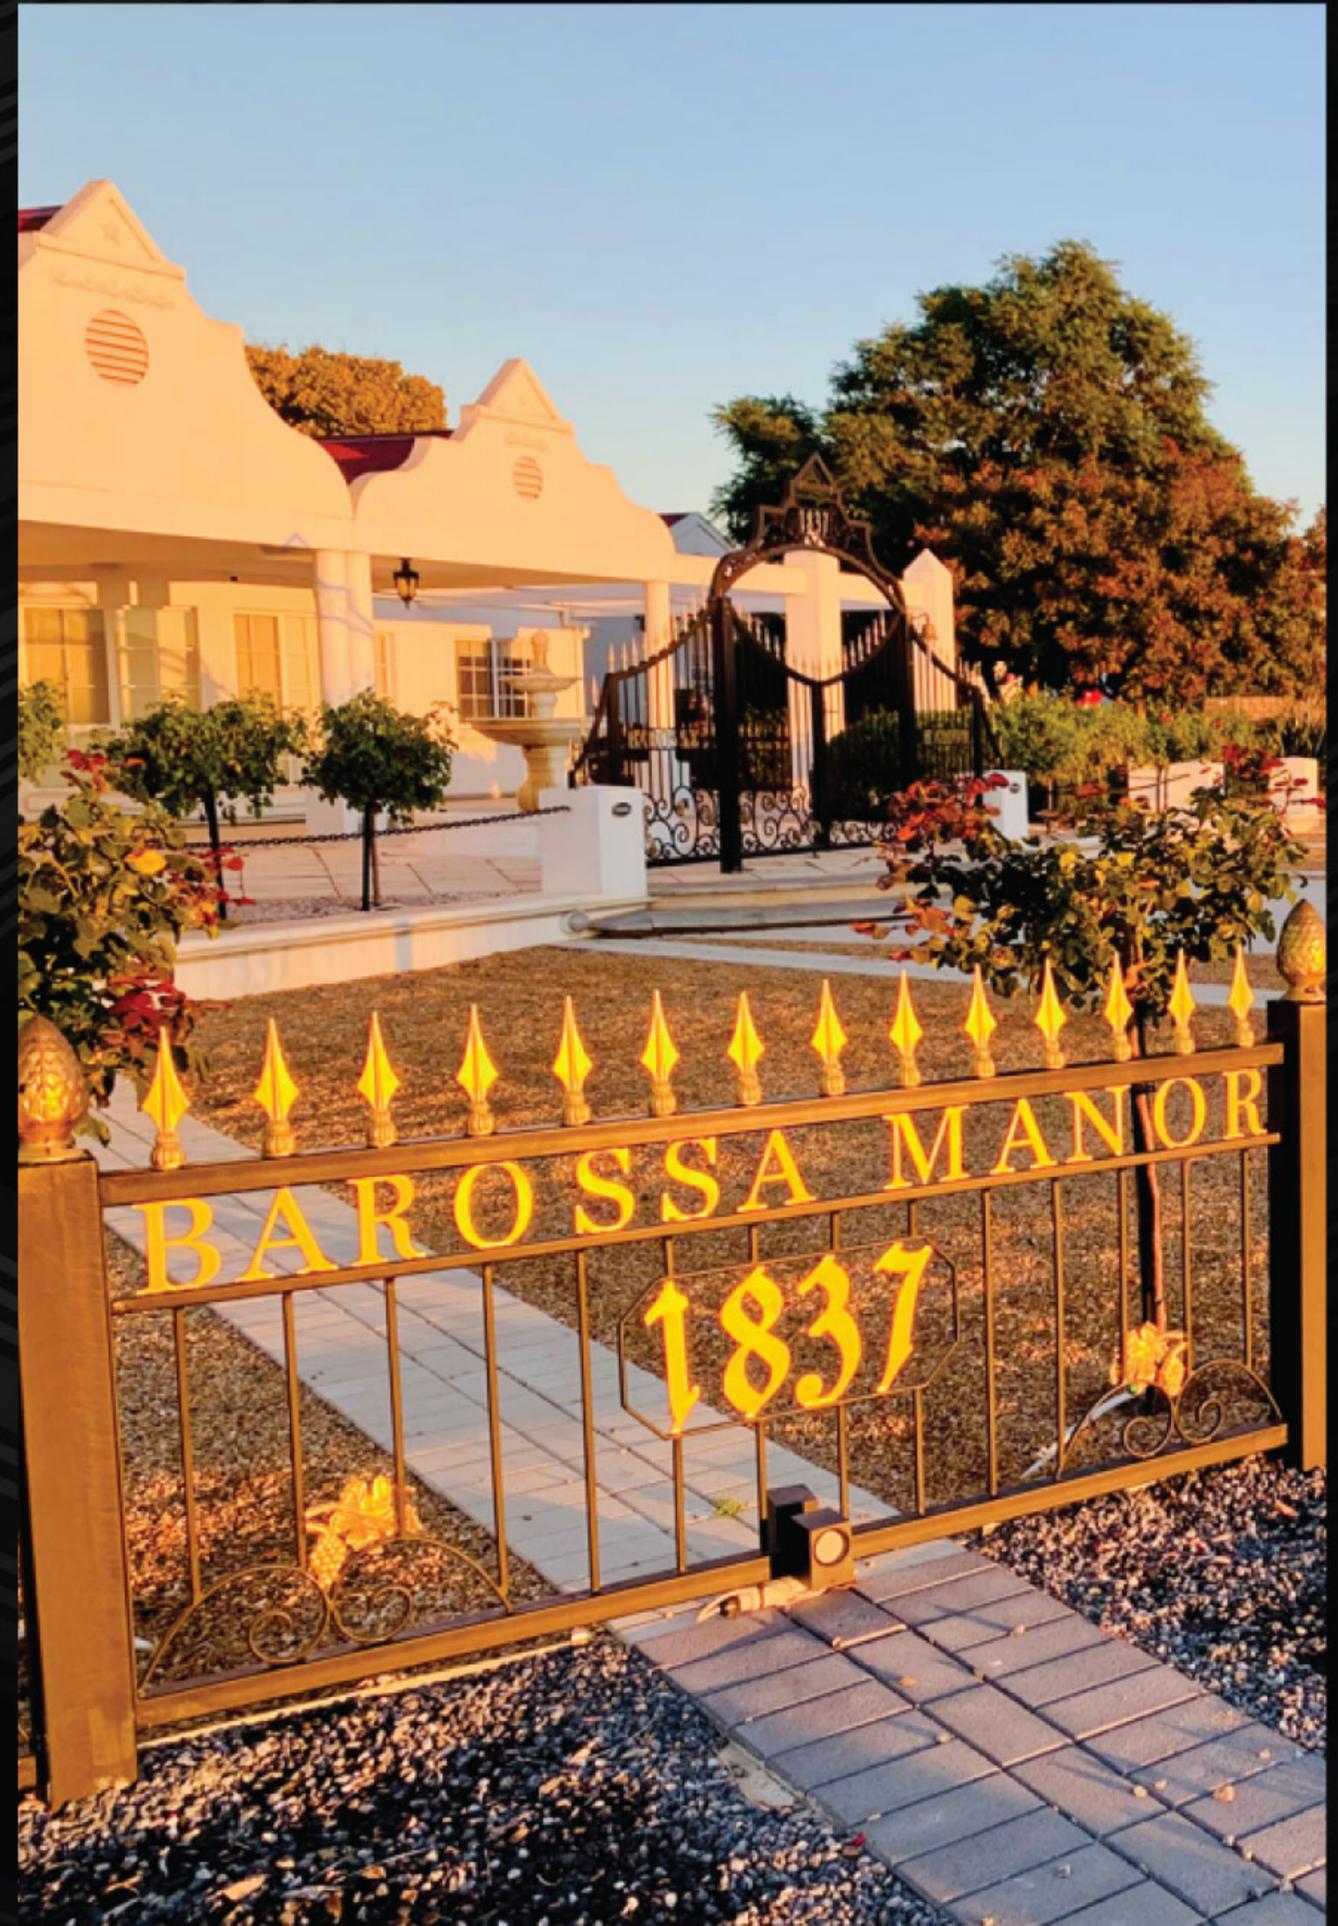

The Barossa Manor

The Barossa Manor is a landmark of South Australia. Its iconic architecture follows the Victorian Neoclassical period. The Manor is a wonderful spot to take beautiful photos and can also be used to have your wedding ceremony.

Fine Dine Restaurant

Our fine dine restaurant on the 1837 Barossa estate celebrates a marriage of contemporary Australian cuisine where Barossa's local produce enhances the buttery flavour of SA's phenomenal seasonal produce.

Our ethos is to create a special seasonal menu using the best locally sourced quality products. Our food is adventurous without being expensive, for those pure inspired flavours with an ambience to relax and indulge all the senses.

1837 Barossa Wines

The Barossa is one of the world's most famous wine producing areas. The prestigious Barossa is not only home to some of the oldest vineyards and wineries in Australia but produces some of its most recognizable and sought after Australian wines.

1837 Barossa succeeded in gaining the most renowned winemakers of Australia. The Auchli family has been instrumental in gaining the best talents available from all over the world to produce the most iconic Australian wines.

Wedding Ceremony

There are currently numerous locations at the winery where you can share your wedding vows for smaller guest numbers.

We have the front area of the historic Barossa Manor overlooking the vineyards with spectacular views of the Barossa Hills.

You may also like to have your wedding ceremony under the beautiful Gazebo near our fine dining restaurant.
